

Arena Is Setting For All Hallow's Party For Children

Following the policy adopted last year, there will be a Halloween party for public school and pre-school children in the Newmarket arena tonight with prizes and hand-outs for the children.

Final arrangements for the party call for the children to assemble at their schools, in costume if possible, where preliminary judging of costumes will be done.

WARNS AGAINST DAMAGE DURING HALLOWEEN FUN

A warning against property destruction was issued by Chief Constable Ronald Watt this morning. "We want the children to enjoy themselves but anyone doing property damage or participating in dangerous mischief will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

Chief Watt said that there would be extra police on hand to patrol the streets. "In these days of shortages, damage done to buildings and other property is much more serious than it has been and I warn everyone that while they are enjoying themselves to bear in mind the rights of others."

done by the teachers on the basis of two students for each room in the school. The children are asked to be at their schools by 6.30.

They will then go to the market square where they will be met by the Newmarket town band and paraded to the arena. As they enter the arena they will circle the floor before going to their seats so that the final judging may be done.

For the remainder of the evening, there will be a program of games and singing under the guidance of James B. Walker as master of ceremonies. The Newmarket firemen and veterans will be at the arena to prevent crowding in the aisles and each child will receive a bag of candies. The party will be over by 9 p.m.

The party is being sponsored by the Newmarket Community Recreation Council with the help of other organizations in town.

PLAN ADVERTISEMENT FOR TOWN AT CORNER

On a motion of Councillor R. C. Morrison and seconded by the chairman of the property committee, George M. Byers, the Newmarket town council Monday night voted to place a large sign at the corner of Yonge and Eagle Sts.

The sign would advertise Newmarket as an industrial centre, Mr. Morrison said. "I think it an excellent thing," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. "I also think we should see about lighting Eagle St. from Yonge St. into Newmarket."

"I have always thought that the town would gain most by having the highway branch, at Middlebrook's and take a curve into town along the old radial right-of-way," said Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillette.

RED CROSS SEEKS SUPPORT IN WORK

The Newmarket Red Cross has a large amount of work on hand and asks the aid of church groups to quilt, as well as individual workers for sewing and knitting at the Red Cross rooms which are open Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

Mrs. W. R. Stephens and Mrs. J. Booth are in charge of the work.

Quilts for outposts hospitals and fire victims, as well as knitted work for children up to six years are needed. Red Cross officials point out that the need for the work of the Red Cross still continues in peace time.

ARE MADE CAPTAINS

Capt. and Mrs. A. Robinson, probationary captains for two years, have received their full captaincy in the Salvation Army.

PLAN CHRISTMAS BALL

The Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion is sponsoring a Christmas ball.

Overhang From Transport Breaks Store Windows

Two to three hundred dollars damage was done to the front of Chainway's store last Friday by a truck according to the estimate of Walter Johns, manager. According to Herman E. Gilroy, a Colville truck, driven by Wm. Murray, Toronto, and carrying building pipe which extended out about six feet from the rear of the truck, was coming out of the lane between Chainways and Bell's Drug Store. Because a car parked in front of Bell's Drug Store partially blocked the lane's entrance, the driver of the truck was forced over to the left side of the lane in order to get out. Mr. Gilroy said. When he turned right onto Main St. the rear of the truck swung to the left and the pipe caught the corner of the side and front windows, completely shattering them.

According to Mr. Johns, damage was also done to the footings and the store's lettering will have to be replaced.

"It's too bad it didn't happen on Monday so that I could have had repairs done for the weekend," Mr. Johns commented.

VETERANS MEET TONIGHT

The regular meeting of the Newmarket Veterans' Association will be held Thursday, Oct. 31, at 8 p.m. in the club room, Main and Millard Sts.

WATER FROM SIMCOE MOOTED FOR DISTRICT

"A water system bringing water from Lake Simcoe as far south as Richmond Hill is a project worth considering," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales Monday night as the Newmarket council was discussing the town water supply.

"When you consider the total cost of drilling wells and laying pipes in municipalities south of the lake, as well as the farms and private homes, it would pay to have the federal government or provincial government undertake such a project," he said.

F. S. THOMPSON URGES AN END TO PREJUDICE

A protest against racial and religious prejudice was made by Deputy District Governor Fred S. Thompson, at a meeting of the Newmarket Lions club in St. Paul's Anglican church parish hall Monday night. "We are all going in the same direction no matter what our race or religious beliefs. Let's go together," he urged.

Mr. Thompson was introduced by Fred A. Lundy and thanked by W. J. Geer, president of the club last year. The club presented Mr. Thompson with a set of goblets.

Speaking on the work of the Lions clubs, Mr. Thompson recalled that when the United States entered the war, the Lions club leaders asked the late President Roosevelt how best the clubs could assist in the war effort. "Back came the message: 'By organizing more Lions clubs,'" he said.

Mr. Thompson said that in his personal opinion, he was against the widespread use of money wheels. "When we are putting much time and money into aiding children, by using these devices, we are destroying what we set out to do," he said.

A spelling bee conducted by John Scott enlivened proceedings as well as contributing to the embarrassment of several members who should know that "psychology" is not spelt "si-chology," nor even "psykology."

STUDENTS TO EDIT NOV. 7 ISSUE OF ERA

Next week, the editorial staff of the Newmarket Era and Express will have a holiday while the students of Newmarket high school put out the Nov. 7 issue of the paper. The students' issue marks the resumption of a practice interrupted during the war.

For the past two or three weeks, student reporters have been scurrying around Newmarket in the search of the news and doings in their town. Public meetings, including the Newmarket town council meeting of Monday night, have been subjected to a severe scrutiny and full accounts by the students will appear in the Nov. 7 issue.

The editorial page has also been placed in the hands of student editors, who in the past, have written editorials of noteworthy merit. Country correspondence and features will appear as usual but the remainder of the issue will be entirely the work of the students.

STOUFFVILLE TRIBUNE COMMENTS ON FIRE

The following editorial appeared in the Stouffville Tribune of October 24 under the heading, Newmarket Learns What's A Blaze:

The fine, new, fire fighting equipment at Aurora went through the town of Newmarket the other day at terrific speed and folk thought the southern municipality was putting on a "show," or something. Well, it turned out that fire ladders from Aurora were in dead earnest. They were heading for Mount Albert to fight a fire at the home of Clarence Toole. Finally Newmarket brigade struck the trail and added their support, but it was all to no avail. The home was burned, the potatoes in the cellar were roasted, and there were a lot of them, even the coal pile burned.

DIES AT HOSPITAL

Roy Nichol, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Nichol, Bradford, died suddenly Oct. 29 in York County Hospital while being prepared to undergo an operation. Dr. L. W. Dales, coroner, said the young man died from a heart condition while in the early stages of anaesthesia, and that X-rays taken after death showed an enlarged heart. Dr. Dales said there would not be an inquest.

Veterans To Parade Nov. 10 For Remembrance Services

Completed plans for the Memorial Day church parade Sunday, Nov. 10, for men and women veterans of Newmarket and district are as follows:

All taking part in the parade will assemble at the town hall square at 2 p.m., Sunday. Led by band and color party, the parade moves off in platoons going east on Botsford St. to Church Ave., turning north to Millard Ave. and along Millard to Main St. and south on Main to Water St. An "eyes left" will be given at the South African War Memorial.

The parade continues along Water St. to the cenotaph. A short service will be held and wreaths will be laid at the memorial. After "break off", a service will be held in St. Paul's Anglican church with Rev. Gover A. Stone, rector, as padre. The guest preacher will be H. Capt. J. C. Cardy, M.C., Anglican padre in the permanent force and now stationed at Camp Borden. Padre Cardy saw service in England, Africa, Sicily and Italy.

Following the "break off", Catholic veterans are invited to parade to St. John's church where Rev. T. J. McCabe will hold benediction and prayers for the dead at 3.30 p.m.

Although the parade is sponsored by the Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion and the Newmarket Veterans' Association, all veterans, both men and women, are asked to attend this solemn service.

Parade marshalls are Bill Johnston and Jack McDonald. The Newmarket town band will parade and a bugler will sound Last Post and Reveille.

Chief Constable Ronald Watt has promised every co-operation and asks that the town hall square and route of the parade be left free of cars from 2-4 p.m. on that day.

Reeve To Sit On Committee To Discuss Transportation

November 11, already a statutory holiday according to Reeve Arthur D. Evans, was officially declared a public holiday as far as the town is concerned by Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales at the meeting of the Newmarket town council. The Canadian Legion was granted permission to hold a poppy day on Saturday, Nov. 9.

On the motion of Mr. Evans, the town has agreed to purchase miniatures of the two trophies won by the Newmarket Vets softball club, to be presented to the club when it is banqueted on Nov. 7. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $70, according to Arthur Evans.

Mr. Evans was appointed chairman of a committee to take part in discussions with representatives of Aurora, Thornhill, Richmond Hill and Toronto concerning transportation between Newmarket and Toronto. Better service at lower cost is the aim of the discussion.

The Newmarket Dramatic Club was granted the use of the town hall on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of the third week of each month between November and April, subject to confirmation from month to month.

Four huts at the former military camp were left in the hands of the property committee for disposal.

A letter from B. W. Hunter, town assessor, was received, asking for a wage increase and pointing out that since he became assessor, the town's assessment had increased by $253,000.

English War Bride Talks To Mother By Shortwave

Mrs. Elwood Apps, 57 Timothy St., English war bride of the manager of the Dominion Store here, spoke to her mother in England last week via short wave radio.

Her mother, Mrs. V. Garwood, resides at 7 Kingsland High St., Durston, London East 8, England, and, according to Mrs. Apps, it has taken Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coombs, Main St. North, about five months to establish short wave contact with a "ham" operator one half mile from Mrs. Garwood's home.

"We talked for over half an hour but I can't remember anything that was said except that both there and here," Mrs. Apps said. "My husband filled in when there were any awkward pauses. It was the first time I have talked with my mother since January, 1945, when I came to Canada and it certainly was thrilling."

Mr. Apps returned from overseas in December, 1944.

Reaction To Plan For School Area Favorable At Meet

Approval of the proposed high school area was voiced Wednesday night at a meeting of council members and school board members from East and North Gwillimbury, Whitchurch and Newmarket. The meeting was called to discuss financing, procedure, and the setting forth of the area by the Newmarket town council. Reeve A. D. Evans was chairman.

The proposed high school area would include Newmarket, part of Whitchurch, part of Kifig, all of East Gwillimbury and part of North Gwillimbury. High school inspector Gordon Duffin explained that the reason for setting up a high school area was to provide sufficient assessment and pupils to set up a school which could afford to provide a full curriculum which would include shop work, home economics, agriculture, commercial and academic courses.

He pointed out that in order to service such an area, transportation would have to be provided throughout. The formation of an area would mean setting up a high school board which would include representatives from each municipality included in the area, a direct taxation on the area for the school. He said that the average tax in school areas has been two mills.

The proposed area would mean the closing of the Mount Albert continuation school but Mr. Duffin assured representatives that the debt on the school would have to be assumed by the whole area.

Councillor Joseph Vale of Newmarket expressed concern about whether the policy of forming high school areas would be adhered to by the provincial government which would be paying as high as 75 percent of the cost of operating the school, leaving 25 percent to be paid by taxes in the area.

"Let's take a chance," urged A. N. Belugin, member of the school board. "We have waited (Page 10, Col. 7)

CHILDREN ARE TOXOIDED AT FREE CLINIC

Seventeen pre-school children were started on diphtheria and whooping cough toxoid series at the public health nurse's office at Botsford and Main Sts. on Monday. Dr. J. H. Wesley, medical officer of health, assisted by Miss Helen B. Gardner, public health nurse, and Mrs. Hunter Wilson administered the toxoid.

Wednesday morning 159 children from King George school and St. John's school were given reinforcing doses of diphtheria toxoid. Mrs. Rodney Eobichon assisted Dr. Wesley and Miss Gardner. Today, children from Alexander Muir and Stuart Scott schools were treated. The children were marched from the schools with police protection Thursday for the Alexander Muir children at the corner of Timothy and Main Sts.

The second of the series of diphtheria and whooping cough toxoid will be given on November 18 at 9 a.m. at the nurse's office.

ONE MORE OPINION

We add our opinion on the results of the two recent by-elections to those of our contemporaries which are printed in an adjoining column. It is notable that in none of the editorial extracts—which represent a fair cross-section of weekly opinion—do the editors see anything salvageable for the Liberal party.

We venture that the Liberal party is not particularly a loser in the contests even though that party's candidates were second to Conservative candidates. We doubt that the showing of Liberal candidates is significant at this time. What is going to count is the result of a general election which is coming closer as the Liberal majority is pared.

As the middle-of-the-road party, the Liberals have the best chance of winning the next general election. The Conservatives with their insistence on individual privileges and "uncontrolled free enterprise, are going to have difficulty squaring their platform with the doctrines of communal responsibility, such as the graduated income tax, unemployment insurance and family allowances, which have become a part of the Canadian way of life during the Liberal tenure.

At the opposite end of the pole, the C.C.F. will have tough sledding convincing Canadians that state control and planned economy can be successful here in the face of the impatience of the people with the present government's bureaucratic tendencies.

The Liberal party is flexible enough to offer refuge for disillusioned socialists who have fled state control but are still disciples of community responsibilities, and for former Conservatives who will not worship exclusively at the altar of profit and loss.

The problem before the Liberal party is not how to answer temporary setbacks at by-elections but who will replace Mr. King. If the Liberals can achieve a peaceful succession to the party throne, their rule will be propagated until the Conservatives catch up with the present and the C.C.F. modifies its doctrines of state control.

CITIZENS' FORUM

A meeting to organize a Citizens' Forum for Newmarket is planned for tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the town council chambers. Citizens' Forums are a joint project of the Canadian Association for Adult Education and Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Each Tuesday, the C.B.C. broadcasts a discussion on such topics as divorce, housing, a Canadian bill of rights, and atom energy. The broadcasts are designed to stimulate discussion among local forums which meet to hear the broadcast and following it, participate in discussions of their own.

Included in the project are study bulletins to provide advance information for topics under discussion. Local forums send in their findings which are reviewed the following week. Such forums are found across Canada. In encouraging an informed and interested adult population, the forums have an inestimable value.

This week also marked the opening broadcast of the National Farm Radio Forum for the winter season. The farm forums are more familiar in this district because of the activities of the Newmarket East forum, to name only one of several in this district. The Canadian Federation of Agriculture shares with the Canadian Association of Adult Education and the C.B.C. the sponsorship of the farm forums.

This discussion of controversial topics in public meetings is a necessary part of education in democracy. By the airing of national issues at a meeting where each may present his opinions, Canadians are contributing their share in the government of this country.

What Others Think

BY-ELECTIONS AGAINST KING GOVERNMENT

(Barrie Examiner)
The by-elections are not going well for the King government. Following so soon after the defeat of the Liberal candidate in Pontiac, Que., which was pretty generally regarded as a safe Liberal seat, the election of two Progressive-Conservatives brings the Liberal membership down to 124. One of these is the Speaker of the House of Commons, who may vote only in case of a tie. The death of Hon. P. J. A. Carlin vacates a seat temporarily and if Fred Rose, Communist M.P., fails in his appeal on the espionage charges, it will mean two by-elections in Quebec. These will be of great importance to the government as they will indicate what the Liberal prospects in Quebec may be.

While the win of Ald. Timmins (in Parkdale) was cheered as a great victory (for the Conservatives), it doesn't look so much so when compared with the number voting and the number of names on the voters' list.

The Progressive-Conservative victory in Portage la Prairie was somewhat of a surprise. J. J. Wood, the Liberal candidate, on Oct. 21, was a prominent farmer, active in agricultural organizations. In Ottawa his defeat was interpreted by the Conservatives as an indication of western feeling on the government's farm policy.

BY-ELECTIONS INVITE STUDY

(Huntsville Forester)
The results of recent by-elections for the federal parliament invite public interest. Three have been held in recent weeks. As a result, the King administration loses two seats, but the official opposition gains only one.
Down in Quebec, a Liberal seat was captured by the representative of a minor political group. In Parkdale, a traditionally Tory seat was retained by that party, but with a much reduced majority. But in Portage la Prairie, a Liberal seat was squelched by a Progressive-Conservative, giving Mr. Bracken another follower and giving Mr. King one less. The outcome of the three recent elections nets a loss of two Liberal seats, and reduces Mr. King's majority to a narrow margin of five over all opposition parties.

But there is another side of the voting. Both (winning) candidates represent their ridings under a minority vote. In Parkdale, a total of 23,448 votes were cast, and the successful candidate polled only 8,193, little over one-third of the total. In Portage the total vote, with one poll out, was 11,435. Of this number the successful candidate polled 4,690, or 40.14 per cent. of the total. In Parkdale the winner polled less than 38 per cent. of the total vote.

A system of voting which permits a member to sit as representative of a riding with 64 per cent. of the vote registered in opposition to him, is worth some serious reflection. It is not rule by the majority. While it is part and parcel of our voting system, it begins to look as if the time has come for a closer study of the method which produces such a result.

As an outcome of the elections on Oct. 21, there is a renewal of the demand in some sections of the daily press for a more sympathetic approach to the single transferable voting system, through which a voter is given opportunity to register his second choice. If, through this system, the highest vote falls to represent a majority of the votes cast, the second choice is counted, and even the third or fourth, until there is a clear majority for the winner.

Complicated as it may seem, this system is in successful operation in other Anglo-Saxon countries, and is giving apparent satisfaction. The day of its trial in Canada is surely approaching, now that half a dozen parties may be represented by candidates at the polls.

MONDAY'S BY-ELECTIONS SHOW NO DECISIVE TRENDS

(Orillia Packet and Times)
The by-elections held on Oct. 21 did not seem to indicate any decided political trend, unless the reduced vote polled and the manner it was split up is to be interpreted as a lack of public interest, or want of decisive preference, arising out of lack of sympathy with the King government's handling of the post-war situation. The Hon. C. D. Howe has admitted that the elections have reduced government prestige. The Progressive-Conservatives can take comfort from the fact they elected their candidates in both Parkdale and Portage la Prairie; but the majorities were not impressive. In view of labor unrest, and the action of some labor bodies in declaring in favor of the C.C.F., the increased support for that candidate in Parkdale is not surprising; but does not give ground for believing that the party is as yet a formidable contender for office. The Portage election, where the C.C.F. candidate trailed behind the other two, was probably a more accurate indication of the party's place in public esteem. However, the precarious position in which the King government finds itself with its over-all majority in the House of Commons practically wiped out, does give the C.C.F. group in the House of Commons a balance of power by which they can exercise considerable influence on government action and legislation. The Portage election will strengthen Mr. Bracken's prestige as leader, and the elections do dispose of any impression that the Conservative party is no longer a first rank factor in the Canadian political sphere.

AND WE SHALL TRY AGAIN

(The C.C.F. News)
C.C.F. candidate Ford Brand was nosed out in Parkdale by the narrow margin of 1,646 votes by the Conservative candidate. The Liberal ran second with 550 votes less than the Conservative. The result was the smallest margin for the winner in Parkdale election history.
Ford Brand made an excellent showing in a traditionally Conservative constituency. Notable fact is the percentage vote obtained by the C.C.F. Gallup poll for Canada shows C.C.F. support as 17 per cent. Brand obtained 28 per cent. of the votes cast in Parkdale. The voting was quite light.
Much the same result obtained in Portage la Prairie where C.C.F. candidate, Sydney Coulthard ran third with 2,809 votes to the Liberals' 4,036 and the Conservatives' 4,509.

NEW LIFE FOR OLD PARTY

(Fergus News-Record)
The Conservative party in Canada got a considerable boost to its morale and the King government got a slap on each cheek. The result in Parkdale was expected for it had never been anything else but Conservative and had elected Dr. Herbert Bruce, who was not exactly a strong man in the party. The only surprise there was the closeness of the run. But in Portage la Prairie, it was different. That was always fair fighting ground and had been Liberal by a wide margin at the general election. And the Liberals tried hard to hold it.
The political experts always come along with reasons after an election and everybody knows they would have had just as good reasons had things gone some other way (though the last by-election in Quebec had them stumped), but there is no doubt much dissatisfaction about the lack of action by the government during the recent strikes, and western farmers have a number of grievances. A by-election gives the people a chance to express their views.

Moment Musical

THE MUSICIAN'S CORNER
By H. G. Fowler, Mus. B.Sc.
Supervisor, Newmarket public school music, Organist, choirmaster, Trinity United church.

"The Blue in the Sky"
Everybody likes fair weather, except the man who makes his living selling rubbers and raincoats. When skies are overcast, how much happier we feel when the blue of the "dutchman's pants" appears through the clouds.

The ever-growing "blue in the sky" is brightening our school rooms these autumn days as the art of music unfolds its whole some charm to the minds and ears of your boys and girls, from the beginners to the graduates. This would be a good time to ponder the truth that the merits of good music need no defense. It is our own individual reaction which is forever on trial and your children and their teachers are responding in a very fine way to the school music course.

The "blue in the sky" is breaking through upon the children in three ways. They are learning to combine their young voices in sweet singing of the carefully chosen selections in their Singing Period books, so that their voices and their music-funishings are developing normally. Their judgment of good and bad tone is generally reliable. They are also learning to read the printed music page and to interpret the notation in correct sounds within their own voices. The "blue in the sky" is also apparent in the evident pleasure which the children derive from their school music. For the great majority of the scholars it brightens up their whole day, as they feel the joy of definite achievement.

Remember the old hymn, Look for the Blue in the Sky.

THE COMMON ROUND

By Isabel Inglis Colville

THE TRIP I DIDN'T TAKE
There comes a time in the life of each one of us when we have no adequate words to express gratitude. I am confronted with one of these times now and it all arises out of something I wanted to do—and couldn't.

You see, for a long time our Bogartown Institute has been planning a trip to the Royal Ontario Museum and to the Crippled Civilians' Workshop. Now I longed to go to both of these places—it was years since I had visited the museum and I had heard so much about the C.C. But if you are just recovering from a sore chest and are at the stage where you wished your nose belonged to someone you disliked, you are no fit companion for those on pleasure bent. And when Thursday morning dawned fair and warm, tapestried with the scarlet and gold of autumn and gay with the fellowship of 29 ladies and one small girl, I sent a long sigh that I'm sure would have wafted the Gray Coach on its way if I had been out of doors. Then, glad they had such a day, I turned my thoughts to other things.

The next day came the pleasant surprise—a handful of notes, written by the fortunate sight-seers. Each gave the impression she received so that I saw the happenings of the day through other eyes. Who wouldn't be touched by such thoughtfulness? So I have tried to sort out impressions and will pass them on. Now had I been there, I'd have made for the Egyptian exhibit and consorted happily with mummies, jewellery and hieroglyphics for the entire time.

Privately I think that if there's anything in reincarnation, in some previous incarnation I must have been an attendant in a temple devoted to cats. Be that as it may, Egypt would have claimed me for her own. But such is the difference in we women, that only one person mentioned Egypt specially while everyone, I think, spoke of China.

Now with me Babylon and India would come before China, although I love their potteries and their work of all kinds. One woman said she liked everything but the Buddhas—well, if they'd smile outright or snarl, I could put up with them, but their Mona Lisa expression gets me, too.

The dresses were a source of much interest to everyone, as were the animals—stuffed and also bony, and some very much alive. One friend, to whom I am to leave a glass duck when I shuffle off this mortal coil, said she couldn't find one there so she comes back to me—still hopeful.

One observation I thought cute was that the lions looked so amiable, maybe the sculptor thought they were maligned animals and gave them a break. Two observers took a great fancy to two antique chairs, but as they couldn't have them and wouldn't know what to do with them if they could, they let it go at that.

By noon they were all a bit weary and glad to sit down to the excellent lunch provided in the museum lunch room. They were all in complete agreement that Ontario—indeed Canada—has reason to be proud that within the reach of everyone is an institute, educational, amusing and intensely interesting, the part relating to Ontario alone being an eye-opener as to our riches of land, sea and air.

Having taken in as much of the museum as could be consumed without mental indigestion, the ladies went out to where the genial bus driver was waiting to convey them to the C.C. Institute.

In all the reports of the visit to this Institute, one thing stood out—each one expressed her thankfulness for the health and strength which was hers.

The Bogartown folks were welcomed by a Baptist minister who acts as guide. All the reports spoke of the amazing transformation of what seemed a mass of junk into useful, attractive and often badly needed articles.

Highly priced articles like stoves, etc., are brought to the C.C.'s in a state of absolute decrepitude and are re-conditioned so that they look like new—ruined parts replaced, porcelain enamel applied and an entirely satisfactory job done. Then off they go to one of the five shops operated by C.C., to be sold at a price within the limits of a small income which could never have touched the article in its pristine splendor.

Our observers said that it was little short of miraculous to see the dirty, smelly, disreputable mass of articles and then see what came of expert handling, disinfection and absolute cleanliness. And best of all, these experts who performed the miracle of turning seemingly nothing into something well worth while, are those who, until this chance came, were shut out of the earners' sphere. Given the chance, they have shown how seemingly unsuperable obstacles can be overcome.

Many given the chance of rehabilitation are returning to crafts that they knew before something crippled them and some who cannot come to the factory work and earn at home. They earn not only money but self respect.

The results of the work are its best advertisement—from an almost infinitesimal beginning it now operates a large factory and

TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Era and Express: As I am being retired from active service as an officer after 38 years in The Salvation Army, and, after seven years as national campaign director, I feel I should send you a word of hearty appreciation of your fine co-operation in the organization of the Home Front Appeal.

We have seen the Home Front Organization develop from nothing to a great force which covers the whole of Canada and includes over 500 points and comprises nearly 30,000 enthusiastic helpers all over the dominion.

The Salvation Army has been put on a secure financial basis and the work being done more than justifies the great service our friends are giving.

It has always been my opinion that no credit for this grand record of achievement is due to us of the Army. We are just the almoners of the generosity and kindly spirit of Canadians of every class and creed. The people who give and whose work makes this service possible are the real benefactors of humanity.

Accept my hearty thanks and prayers that the blessings of God may rest on you and yours for all your efforts to help us "build a better Canada".

Sincerely yours,
H. Chas. Tuttle,
Lieutenant-Colonel,
National Campaign Director,
Toronto, Ont.,

It is a wonderful work and people come away with the firm determination to help—they even took up a generous collection while there. Now they are donating clothes, stoves, furniture, used stamps, anything and everything they know can be made use of.

Before leaving the C.C.'s served our group a most welcome cup of tea which sent them home thoroughly satisfied with all they had seen and heard and ready to make me happy by the thoughtfulness which could include even an absent member.

DOWN THE CENTRE

By AD. HULSE

"I Don't Know Enough About You" would be the theme song, if we were to attempt to give you the inside story on the Herby Cain, hockey situation. We have had many inquiries in recent days about the popular Newmarket boy and here's the way it looks from info gleaned by our undercover agents.

Herb reported to Hershey, Pa., with the Bruins, and looked mighty good in practice. In company with all other N.H.L. clubs, the Bruins are interested this year in the future and while Norm McAttee is the only rookie up with the Beantowners, Ross and Clapper apparently decided that Cain should go down to Hershey to aid that club and yet be handy insurance in case of injuries figuring that Herb's playing days in the N.H.L. were numbered.

Cain, despite the newspaper reports, didn't report to Hershey, figuring rightly enough that unless the moola was sufficient in the American Hockey League, he might as well retire. He came back to Newmarket and last week journeyed to Barrie with the Newmarket Vets, giving them valuable pointers on the attack and defence. Then came a hurry-up call from Boston, raising the ante, and interesting enough to send Cain back to the pro ranks.

Whether or not he stays with Hershey, returns to the Bruins, goes to the Rangers, or is traded to Philadelphia, remains to be seen. The pride of canaltown is still plenty good, has a record as a player that deserves commendation and will be an asset to any team with which he plays. Herb has always given his best, and don't forget five years ago he was sent down to New Haven from the N.H.L. only to come back stronger than ever. Hockey can ill afford to lose Cain, and there are many niches into which he would fit nicely. All North York is in the Cain corner, no matter where it may be.

Cecars McDonald and Doug May feel pretty good these days after seeing their protégés on ice, and six practice sessions have been booked for Barrie arena by the Newmarket Vets. Around 25 players made the trip and among those present were Pete Dillman, Herb Fletcher, Ivan Stepak, Merv Broughton, Mickey Sutton, Norm Legge, Whitey Bone, Bob McCabe, Myles McInnis, Ed. Tidman, Ken Groves, Harvey Gibney, Stan Evans, Bob Johnson and Art Dobbie. Stepak, Broughton and Sutton are new additions and the trio won't weaken the team any.

Who the others were is being kept a dark secret by the Board of Strategy. "Sign on the dotted" and then publicize is the method to be followed. McDonald and May are still on the prowl for players, and expect to come up with one or two surprises. Frankly, they'll need to for intermediate O.H.A. The present club is tops for mercantile but to go very far needs strengthening.

Johnny Callanan, the Irish thrush of Newmarket camp sports, is playing hockey for Hershey these days. Callanan, along with Blondie Prokop who used to play for Owen Sound juniors against Aurora, was originally with Philadelphia Ramblers but was traded to Hershey. It's a real promotion for the Hershey team is really flying these days. "I can't understand it on what Callanan showed us here," says one close student of hockey in these parts. You can't change the fact, no matter what your opinion, that Johnny is up and coming this year.

Chuck Shannon, defence stalwart of Newmarket camp team, coach of the soldier boys when they won the town league last winter, has been appointed coach of Owen Sound Mohawks in the senior O.H.A. "Whattaman," it will be recalled, played defence for Toronto Staffords last winter, and was originally booked to do likewise. When the veteran Norm Locking differed with things at Owen Sound and decided to play intermediate hockey at Southampton, Piper Bain and his associates lost no time in securing the former Pittsburgh blueline basher. Shannon will be playing coach, and the referees can depend on hearing a few thousand words per game, as he'll speak with authority now. Owen Sound has gathered together a fair collection of players, too.

Joe Iannarelli, last year with South Porcupine and before that the star of the Brampton camp teams which dominated military hockey in the area (took Newmarket two years in a row), is dangling along with Omaha Knights, the Detroit farm team this year. The way the parent club is progressing right now, Iannarelli might be moved up before too long.

Don, Wilson, ex-Newmarket redman, heads the forwards for Toronto Staffords in senior "A" again and the Bradford boy is headed for another big season. "Brains" still knows how to patrol a wing, and pop the puck past the opposing goalie. Jerry Olineck, who once was with Omaha, and two years ago delisted Newmarket fans with his antics for Toronto Navy, is with the Toronto team, as is Lloyd Roubell. Long a minor leaguer, Roubell was a member of Stratford midgets the year they met Newmarket in the O.H.A. semifinals in 1933. Ray Gelliffe, another member of the same team and lately with Les Canadiens, is now a linesman in the N.H.L. and also runs a sporting goods store in Montreal.

Bill Armstrong, who played briefly for Aurora Juniors, then for Penetang, Navy Juniors, and Navy Seniors, jumped Staffords on the eve of the O.H.A. opening to take a spot with Boston Olympics in the U.S.A.H.A. We got the news from his uncle Bob. Ross Waddell, who in our books rates next to Kid Harman as the best goalie ever to wear an Aurora sweater, is the star of the backfield of Oshawa Blue Devils football club in the O.R.F.U. intermediate series. Waddell will play goal for Oshawa Canadian Legion this winter.

Wally Samanski, who featured for Whittby in the local junior "B" group three years ago, then played with Oshawa and Ottawa St. Pats, is listed as booked to play for Toronto Young Rangers. Samanski will be with Staffords if he hasn't found the fountain of youth. Bob Forster, who used to tend goal for Stouffville and Markham Juniors and then won a spot with Oshawa Generals, lies in an Oshawa hospital with a badly injured back and hip. Bob fell out of an apple tree recently but the injuries are not of a permanent nature according to reports.

The Three Chin Brothers have finally left their home in Lucknow, and moved from junior "C" to junior "A" with Windsor Spitfires. The Chinese trio should be ready for "A" this year but it only seems like yesterday since Frank Belke and company were sending out reams of publicity about the three kids lining up with the Toronto Maple Leafs. One of the trio was born in Newmarket, don't forget, and the other two are Hong Kong products.

Coming nearer home, the rumors still persist of a Junior C group to embrace Bradford, Newmarket, Aurora, and probably Stouffville. Richmond Hill might feel them all by entering too, since Marlboros of the "B" series, who bid for the use of Richmond Hill arena, have decided against playing there this season. We can't figure the Hill being left out of the hockey picture in some way. The Simmons silence is something we'll have to crack soon to learn what's cooking for Aurora kids.

Next Monday, the hockeyists of all grades will foregather with Recreationist Mickey Smith to decide on what's trump in Newmarket ice lanes. Rumor has it that it will be intermediate "B", junior "C", midget O.M.H.A. and mercantile. That's a big program, and it's doubtful if financially it would be a success, which might be borne in mind by those attending the session. Herbie Rose, the heavy-hitting defenceman of Richmond Hill Juniors and a pretty fair all-round athlete, will line-up with Scarborough Rangers this season. Norm Stundeen, the Hill goalie, who southpawed for Aurora midget ball club this summer, is due for promotion this year, and has a real chance to make the grade in "A" with Marlboros. He did a stint in the cage for the Marlies against Barrie on Friday night. The opposition is not too tough for the Toronto team, and Stundeen has his big chance. He has the "B" job cinched for the Toronto team, but coach Bob Davidson is sweet on Stundeen.

Mac Clement and Billy Muddell will both likely be with the Marlboros "B" team. Neither boy has had a real chance with Marlboros "A" club, their present assignment of studies coming first, rightly enough. Johnny Sullivan, former Hill junior, will pivot the main line for Marlboros this winter, with Bob Hassard, another former Hill player, centering the second line. Stouffville juniors, 'tis said, are making a real effort to secure the services of big John Atkinson, the defence star of Aurora midgets last winter. Johnny would probably play here if Aurora has a team in "C."

Earl Rowe, with his eyes fixed on the 3-year-old trotting futurity next year and with the feats of Van Riddell to maintain, has purchased Miss Admiral Todd, a classy two-year-old, from Mrs. M. Sheppard of Coldwater. Mr. Rowe thinks he has acquired a real prospect. The purchase price was in four figures.

Bunny Morganson, rotund Toronto sports columnist, sometimes known as "Mr. Five," was the guest speaker on Monday night at the banquet tendered the Stouffville baseball team by Stouffville Lions. It (Continued on page 8)

"NERVES" She Called It

Loosing interest—losing friends—the nerve was at a low ebb—always too tired, "Nerves," she thought—but it was her kidneys—the filters of her blood—that needed attention. She used Dodd's Kidney Pills at once. The improved action of her kidneys helped to clear away blood impurities and excess acids. Fatigue, backache, headache, lack of energy disappeared. Dodd's Kidney Pills contain essential oils and medicinal ingredients that act directly upon the kidneys—and help restore their normal action.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

What To Do With Beer Problem Before Court

Charlie Sweet, Holland Landing, pleaded guilty to having liquor in an illegal place and was fined $10 and costs in Magistrate's court here Friday.

Chief Constable Ronald Watt, Newmarket, and Deputy Chief Constable James Leeder laid the charge. Magistrate J. E. Pritchard, K.C., presided.

Leslie Moffatt, Newmarket, pleaded guilty to having liquor in his possession in his home, which had been declared a public place following conviction of illegal possession last July.

Chief Watt testified that when he and Constable Leeder entered the home of the accused, they found several people, including the accused, drinking beer and found five cases of beer just outside the line fence surrounding the property.

Accused claimed that he did not know the beer was there, nor did he know to whom the beer belonged.

He was fined $50 and costs or 30 days and the beer found in the house was confiscated. Then the question arose as to what to do with the beer found outside the line fence.

"We can't give it back to Moffatt, he says it isn't his," Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong said. "We can't confiscate it because we don't know that whoever had it, had it illegally," Magistrate Pritchard said. "We will just have to return it to the Liquor Control Board with our compliments."

"Why not take it and put it back where we found it, outside the line fence?" one of the officers suggested.

Andrew Virag pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving laid by Provincial Constable W. A. Melbourne.

"I observed the accused on No. 11 highway, going from the shoulder on the side of the road out over the centre line and back again," he said. "I followed him for some distance while this continued and then stopped him. He was considerably under the influence of liquor. Traffic was light at that particular time but he had forced one car over onto the shoulder of the road." Accused was fined $35 and costs or 30 days.

Magistrate Pritchard informed the court that Magistrate W. E. McIlveen would return to take over the bench next week and expressed his appreciation to the court clerk, reporters, to Mr. Armstrong and to all of the police officers for their co-operation while he was on the bench. Magistrate McIlveen left the bench two years ago because of illness.

Farm Forum Resumes Meets,
Finds Rural Standards Low

By MRS. W. H. WILMOT

The Newmarket East Farm Forum held the first meeting of the winter series at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilmot Monday evening. The subject dramatized on CBL and discussed was Are Farm Living Standards High? (Would you take a job in the city at $32.20 a week if you got the chance, this being the average 1944 wage of non-agricultural workers?)

Members of the discussion group were unanimous in the opinion that a successful farmer should not be classed in the same wage scale as the $32 a week earner, as he is managing a business which produces not only raw products but products for industry such as plastics, penicillin, etc.

Farm women are co-partners and give time, energy and thought in the interests of the farm. Many farm young people might be included in this group, serving without recognition of economic returns and classed by statisticians as "dependents". None of the group including a school teacher would exchange positions.

Across Canada 20 percent rural to 99.2 urban homes have electricity, 7.3 percent bathing facilities to 75.9 in urban, 12 percent furnace heating to 62.1 percent in urban, are reasons for women being dissatisfied with conditions on the farms. The long hours of work with small remuneration, lack of social, educational and recreational facilities for themselves or their families, distance from medical and health centres were also given as reasons.

A larger return of the consumers' dollar to the primary producers would create new wealth and would mean more purchasing power for the goods so badly needed.

Next week's topic is What About Farm Taxes? An invitation is extended to anyone interested to attend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Walker.

arttown W.I.

PROVIDES MUSIC AT ANNIVERSARY

The choir of girls and young women of St. Paul's United church at Scarboro, shown above, provided music at the Keswick United church anniversary service Sunday. The choir is conducted by Mrs. Marshall Lyons, the former Marie Draper, who was born in Mount Albert and is well known throughout this district as a former music teacher in many schools.

Music Marks Anniversary At Keswick United Church

A capacity congregation, estimated at slightly more than 300, filled Keswick United church for the evening anniversary service on Oct. 27. Mrs. Marshall Lyons, formerly Marie Draper of Mount Albert, led her choir from St. Paul's United church, Scarboro Bluffs, in a musical service of worship which will be long remembered. They sang five anthems, including The Lost Chord and The Children's Prayer. Mrs. Lyons sang a setting of the 23rd Psalm as a solo. The choir also sang a descant for Unto the Hills, which was used as a processional hymn, and the Lord's Prayer at the conclusion of the pastoral prayers.

The service was conducted by the minister, Rev. Gordon Lapp, who spoke on the importance of church music. He used as his text Colossians 3 and 18: "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

Mrs. Harold Pollard played the accompaniments for the hymns, as well as the prelude, voluntary and postlude. The anthems were unaccompanied.

Rev. Gerald Hutchinson, general secretary of the Student Christian Movement of Canada, was guest preacher at the morning anniversary service. His subject was "Rebirth of the church through youth" and his appeal was for a growing fellowship of Christian witnesses in all walks of life.

Keswick choir, led by Miss Eva Gilroy and with Mrs. Harold Pollard as organist, sang an anthem. Walter Walker and Kenneth Boothby took solo and duet parts respectively, the former also singing Bless This House and He Smiled On Me as solos.

The church was suitably decorated with autumn flowers and the morning congregation was approximately 250.

Next Sunday, Nov. 3, and throughout the fall and winter, the United church Sunday-school will meet at 12 noon, immediately following morning service. Under this plan service and school can be completed by 12:45. There is an adult Bible class for parents of the children and others interested.

Miss Olive Niles, Toronto, was at the parental home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cook were here from Toronto for the weekend. After driving up on two rainy Friday evenings Mr. Cook fooled the weatherman by waiting until Saturday morning and then bringing a fine day with him.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Cryderman have gone to Newmarket for the winter. Their house, which they purchased from Mrs. Mary Morton, is now occupied by Keswick's new trucker, Wm. Tomlinson, and family. Mr. Tomlinson bought truck and business from Elmer Peters, well known local man who had been in the business for a number of years.

Mrs. Gerald Hutchinson and small son, Kenneth, remained for a brief visit with her cousin, Mrs. Gordon Lapp. Mr. Hutchinson had a Toronto preaching engagement Sunday evening.

rick, Shirley and Bruce, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Alleyne of Queensville.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Haines and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Storey of Montreal motored to Sutton on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haines.

WILLOW BEACH

Mr. Percy Reed, member of Sutton Hunt club, leaves on Saturday for two weeks' hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Turner Hamilton, Pense, Sask., are visiting relatives at Willow Beach.

Miss Eleanor Thayer spent last week in Toronto.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in aqua blue crepe dress, gold nail head trimmed with matching shoulder veil and gloves, and corsage of Bettertime roses and white baby's breath. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. Len Chapman, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, dressed in deep salmon pink crepe, sequin trimmed, with matching shoulder-length veil and black accessories. Her corsage was of cream Tullifan roses. Mr. Jim Wood, brother of the groom, was best man.

SERVING AURORA AND DISTRICT

Nov. 11 Holiday In Aurora, Memorial Service Nov. 10

Mayor Ross Linton and the Aurora town council have announced that Monday, Nov. 11, will be officially declared a full holiday for the town of Aurora. The announcement, in line with similar action in many Ontario municipalities for Remembrance Day, will enable Aurora Branch 385, Canadian Legion, to carry out its original plans for the memorial service announced last week.

Rev. Jock Anderson of Toronto, padre of the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry in the Normandy-Germany campaign, will be the guest speaker for the service with all the Aurora clergy taking part in the service.

A parade to the cenotaph is planned when wreaths will be deposited by the town of Aurora, the township of King, the township of Whitchurch, Aurora Branch Canadian Legion, Collins Leather Co. Ltd., and other groups.

Legion To Sell Poppies For Welfare Work Nov. 9

Poppy Day will be remembered in Aurora on Saturday, Nov. 9, and it is the aim of the Aurora branch 385, Canadian Legion, that every school child and citizen wear a poppy. Wreaths will be placed on the cenotaph this year by the town of Aurora, township of King, township of Whitchurch and Collins Leather Co. and any organization of merchants desiring to purchase wreaths for window displays or memorials are requested to communicate with the branch secretary.

President John Sisman has issued the following appeal to the citizens of the Aurora district: "This year, as in other years, the Canadian Legion, through its 2,000 branches and auxiliaries in Canada, is calling to the people of the dominion that they should observe more than ever in solemn remembrance the symbolism which has become an integral part of Remembrance Day observances, and asks that every man, woman and child wear a poppy on November 9 in memory of those who laid down their lives in the Great War and of those men and women who have made the supreme sacrifice in the recent conflict."

"This appeal is not made on behalf of the Legion or its members, but on behalf of all ex-servicemen who are in need. The collection and administration of the Poppy Fund has been entrusted to the Canadian Legion. This, however, does not mean that the Poppy Fund is part of the funds of the Legion. It is rather considered as a trust fund which the Legion administers for the benefit of all ex-servicemen. Any man who has served and who is in need has a claim on this fund. The poppies and wreaths which you will be asked to buy are made by an organization of disabled ex-servicemen. If Poppy Day did nothing but keep these men self-supporting and self-respecting citizens, it would still be worthwhile.

"No man or woman connected in any way with Poppy Day receives one cent as wages, salary, bonus, commission or allowance for expense. All monies collected are placed in a special account which is controlled by a board of trustees of this branch."

"Should any of our friends desire further information on any point in connection with Poppy Fund activities, our branch secretary, T. A. M. Hulse, will be glad to supply it."

Legion Here Granted Use Of Armory Club-Rooms

Aurora branch 385, Canadian Legion, has been granted use of the club rooms in the Aurora armory which were formerly occupied by the Aurora R.C.O.C. depot, through the courtesy of the Queen's York Rangers regiment. The new quarters, while hardly able to hold all the members of the branch assembled at one time, will be used for the monthly meetings and will suffice until other quarters are available. The drill floor will be available if it is found necessary. The sergeants' mess is being used as a committee meeting room and the various committees are now hard at work laying plans for future events.

A monthly bulletin prepared under the direction of vice-presidents Stanley Walker and William MacGill will keep the members posted on the various activities.

The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 6, and all candidates for membership who have signed application forms or paid their dues are urged to be present at 8 p.m. This will be an important business session with all committees reporting on their activities. All members and any interested veterans are urged to attend.

FAITH IN FUTURE URGED BY MINISTER

Faith in God, faith in yourself, faith in your friends and fellow man, faith in your profession or business and faith in Canada were urged by the Hon. Russell T. Kelly, minister of health for Ontario, who addressed the Aurora Lions club on Thursday night.

"There is no reason for pessimism nor need to worry about the future if we will make faith our basis of living," Mr. Kelly declared. He professed confidence in the solution of world problems and thought the relations between Canada and the United States might serve as an example for the rest of the world to follow.

Mr. Kelly was introduced by Dr. E. J. Henderson, president of the Aurora board of trade, and a vote of thanks was moved by A. E. L. Maughan.

Surviving are his widow, the former Ellen Hawshaw, and a son, James.

Mr. Burke was well known in Aurora, being stationed at the Aurora R.C.O.C. depot until three months ago. A number of the Aurora detachment and former fellow employees attended the funeral in Toronto on Monday.

Prize winners were: Henry Thomas, $10; Charles Williams, $10; Bruce McQuarrie and Ross Bovale (tied), $7 each; Mervin McQuarrie, $5; Eric Hadwen, $5; Bill Armstrong, $4; Arthur James, $3. All other contestants received a $2 award.

COMMENCEMENT NOV. 22

November 22 has been announced by Principal J. H. Knowles as the date of the annual commencement at Aurora high school. Col. Fred van Nostrand, O.B.E., Vancor, graduate of the school, will be the guest speaker. Miss Agnes Hill, now attending McMaster University, will be the valedictorian.

VOTERS ELECT TOWN FATHERS IN DECEMBER

With the election date in Aurora advanced from the customary January date to early December, the last official meeting of the Aurora town council is set for Monday, Nov. 4. There is strong possibility, however, that the council will find it necessary to hold at least one other meeting to clean up business prior to nomination day which falls on November 25.

Elections will have two weeks this year, by reason of a change in the Ontario Municipal Act, to think over town problems and the most suitable candidates before casting their ballots. The candidates will have plenty of time to visit the electors if a contest ensues.

The question of the town financial statement presents a problem both to the council and to the electors. Usually the statements, distributed at nomination meetings, cover town receipts and expenditures to December 15 and give the electors all but 15 days of the true picture of the municipal financial structure. Town solicitor L. C. Lee is securing a ruling from the Department of Municipal Affairs on this point.

Town auditor Melvin Hilborn has expressed an opinion that it will be only possible because of the change to provide a financial statement to October 31. It may be necessary for council to publish the actual statement of finances after the election this year.

So far there has been little talk of municipal politics in Aurora, most electors seemingly unaware or indifferent to the change in election dates.

Hart Co. Postpones Construction Here Until Warm Weather

Owing to delay in securing the necessary building materials which would necessitate a start in cold weather and working under adverse conditions, officials of the Hart Manufacturing company have decided not to start the building of their new plant for Edward Street until spring which would mean the plant would not get under way until midsummer.

Meanwhile the plant carries on in its temporary quarters in Toronto. William Elmer, the Canadian manager who resides here, is commuting to Toronto daily but along with other officials of the company and townspeople, looks forward to 1947 when the plant will be built here.

By the time the building of the plant starts, the municipality hopes to be able to secure the necessary supplies to complete the water and sewer extension on Edward St. There have been many visitors to the new industrial and residential area bounded by Edward St. and Cousins Drive. The natural beauty of the area and the splendid building sites, many of which have already been purchased by prospective home builders, have attracted large numbers.

The site of the Hart plant with its green sward, level ground adjacent to the C.N.R. tracks and the fine new road draws much favorable comment.

Spooks And Such Like On The March Tonight

Witches, goblins, fairy princesses, hoboes, gypsies, all the fictional characters from story books, in fact almost everybody including the mysterious Mr. Killy will be on parade tonight at Aurora school kids, celebrate Halloween with their customary parade, costume judging and room parties at Aurora public school.

The parade, headed by Aurora Boys' Band, will get underway following the judging and should hit Yonge St. by 8 p.m. Returning to the school the youngsters will enjoy their party with many parents present. The event, which has been held annually for over ten years, is as popular as ever but youngsters report the supply of Halloween supplies to be affecting them.

Chief Constable Fisher Dunham, Constables William Langman and James Goulding augmented by special police will be on hand to see that as little damage as possible is done. Halloween, once the bugbear of Aurora merchants and residents, has been fairly quiet in recent years but even at that too much damage is done.

"With building materials practically irreplaceable, juveniles should think twice before doing anything foolhardy," said Chief Dunham. "The ringing of the fire alarm system, done as a practical joke each year, is most dangerous and we intend to see any one ringing the alarms dealt with. We don't look for much trouble this year but we are prepared to meet what there is."

Mattress Company Buys Part Of R.C.O.C. Depot

The Inner Spring Mattress Company Ltd. of Toronto has purchased the east portion of the Aurora R.C.O.C. depot, owned by Fleury-Bissell Ltd. The parcel includes the land to the east, covering Temperance St., the large R.C.O.C. storage shed which is to remain on the premises and vacant land opposite the part of the plant still owned by Leonard Grover of the Grover Shoe Co.

Messrs. Levine and Weiner, the heads of the new firm, have a wide experience in the manufacture of mattresses, chesterfields and studio couches and the firm, which has been in operation for some years, now has plants in operation at 544 Queen St. E., Toronto, and 48 George St., Toronto. It is expected that the present Toronto arrangements will continue but that eventually the manufacturing end of the business will be transferred to Aurora.

The new owners are scheduled to take possession on November 1 but the premises, it is believed, will require alterations before manufacturing operations will commence here. No announcements have been made as to the number of employees that might be engaged here but it is thought the plant will start with a modest payroll, gradually employing more persons. In the Toronto plants men and women are employed.

It is understood there was considerable bidding for the plant with a local syndicate reputed to be willing to go as high as $18,000 for the premises.

Ship 12 Tons Of Salvage, New Contest Underway

Twelve tons of waste salvage paper were shipped by the Aurora board of trade as a result of the first collection in the new salvage campaign which opened last Saturday. Not all of this amount was brought in by contestants, some paper being on hand from donations made throughout the summer.

Robert Milne brought in a total of 3,170 pounds to lead the contestants on opening day with Raymond White, 1,900 pounds, and Joan Stephenson with 1,490 pounds in second and third places on the day. The committee points to last contest which saw the early leaders overhauled, and all contestants or would-be contestants who have not yet entered for the $165 in prize money are still in the running. The committee is considering providing some assistance by way of transportation for the contestants who, because of the large amounts collected, are finding it difficult in some cases to deliver all their paper on collection day to the depot.

POSTPONE GAME

Richmond Hill high school soccer team turned up on Monday afternoon equipped with running shoes, while Aurora high eleven wore cleated shoes with the net result the contest was postponed pending settlement of the issue. In an exhibition fixture Aurora scored a 1-0 win over the visitors.

Last week it was erroneously reported that Aurora had downed the Hill 3-0. That score was posted over St. Andrew's College, which tied Richmond Hill 2-2 last week and meet Aurora at the college this afternoon.

FRACTURES WRIST

Mrs. A. C. A. Willis, Spruce St., broke her left wrist bone on Tuesday as she fell in a Richmond Hill garage.

ENTERS "WRECK"

Aurora was capably represented in the Red Feather Jolopy, parade in Toronto on Saturday morning. "Wreck of the 97", driven by Heath Hamilton, attracted considerable attention even if it didn't win a prize and Frances Moore and Val MacNaught who rode in the car were warmly applauded.

TAKES UNIVERSITY POST

Lieut. Col. Hugh Conn, former Aurora resident and graduate of Aurora high school, has been appointed head of the mechanical engineering department of the Department of Science at Queen's University, Kingston. Prof. Conn is the oldest son of the late Rev. W. J. Conn who was once minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church here.

was a gala evening. Bunny is an old Pickering township boy, and one of Ontario's biggest baseball boosters.
The banquet league was further in evidence as Schomberg honored its Ontario rural softball champs with a dinner, windbreakers, dance, and presentation last night. It lasted until the wee sma' hours.
Aurora midgeet lacrosse team will be dined shortly by Aurora Canadian Legion, and a group of Aurora sportsmen are readying a moderate presentation for the boys, who played their games in camera most of the year. Too bad to see the final game flop. Next year everything will be all put down in black and white, and the teams will have to 'hew to the line or else. Lacrosse generally made a big comeback, but the organization was too loose.
King City will have an outdoor rink this winter, which will be enlarged into a sports bowl. Seven hundred dollars has been allotted towards the project, which will provide a 180 x 80 structure with a four-foot fence and high powered lights. George Brown, Bruce Hall, Al Meades and Ross Walker comprise the committee in charge. The rink is the project of the Lake Marie and King Athletic Association.
Garth Boesch, defence rookie of the Toronto Leafs, is the only player in the entire N.H.L. to wear a moustache, strange as it may seem.
Carl and Howard Timbers, who played baseball for Aurora minor clubs the past season, both are real dirt farmers, and live up to the family tradition of being expert plowmen. Carl captured a first at the International Plowing Match, followed up with first at the King and Vaughan match. Howard annexed a first and second at the North York matches.
Al Orr, husky defenceman of Maple boxla team, took a second in an older class at Kleinberg last week. Don Keffer of Maple juniors won a first and a second in the juvenile classes there too.
Jim Moore, fast moving basketballer for Richmond Hill high school last season, is now enrolled at Guelph O.A.C., and should stand a chance for the Aggies team. Phil Stewart, another of the Hill squad of last year, is out of school and farming, while Norm Alexander, rugged forward of the green and white who also played lacrosse for Combines the past summer, is now employed at painting. Coach Don Tapscott, however, feels he has a strong team in hand, with Barry Collard, Bill and Sandy Mead, Mac, Clement, Sandy Mellor, Red Gamble and others. Tapscott figures Newmarket high will be the team to beat for the cage honors however.
Aurora Legion could trot out a mighty sweet basketball team, with Bill Thompson, Gar, Doolittle, Bill Williams, Al Stephenson, Doug Nisbet, Craig McKenzie, Charlie Seath, Don Glass, Ron Kyle, Nip Armstrong, Anson Gilbert, Heath Hamilton and Ted Johnson being some of the better talent on hand, and perhaps Major Norm Johnson, coach of Aurora high, could be persuaded to take over his old charges. The situation will be mulled over and perchance you'll see action.
Fred Timbers, of Stouffville, champion plowman, was on the Hot Stove League Saturday night and gave a 3-star performance. Sounded as interesting as the regulars, and did provide a welcome change from the old familiar voices. Emphasized training, good equipment and coaching as the main requisites for a champion plowman. Not much different from any other line of sport, n'est-ce-pas?
We appreciated a couple of letters received last week. Geo. Haskett wrote: "Just before baseball goes out of the picture completely for this year, I wish to thank you for the publicity you have given the Newmarket junior baseball club this summer. It was greatly appreciated by myself and the boys on the team. It helped a great deal to keep the team, the North York Lions League and the fans up to date on the baseball situation."
Cal Miller, coach of the Maple lacrosse team who won the North York league and the J. E. Smith trophy, penned the following:
"Thought I would drop you a line and thank you for all the nice write-ups you have given us this year. You really treated us swell and all the players and fans think that, when orchids are being handed out, we should send you one.
"You started a year ago to drum-up this lacrosse and you stuck to it all season. Through your column you have helped the game greatly. We had fans coming from your district every game; no doubt they got their start through the Era. I think you will agree with me in saying lacrosse only needs good publicity to make it the most popular summer sport. It has everything the fans want to see except that mythical glamor which only comes from publicity.
"It makes it hard to carry a sport such as lacrosse with so little support, but I feel all the time I have given this year has been well worth while."

In Memoriam

Hopkins—In loving memory of a dear father, John E. Hopkins, who passed away October 30, 1945. Not now but in the coming years, It may be in the better land, We'll read the meaning of our tears And there, sometime, we'll understand. Ever remembered by daughter, Della, Gordon and Donald.

Smart—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Elsworth Smart, who passed away October 31, 1945. He was a wonderful husband. He played life's battles square. No matter when we needed him. We always found him there. So on this day our hearts go out To the dearest and best of fathers Who never had time to think of himself But always thought of others. Lovingly remembered by wife Elizabeth and family.

Smart—In memory of our loving father, Elsworth Smart, who died October 31, 1945. The month of October is here again. To us, the saddest of the year. For it was on the 31st day Our dad passed away. My sister and I knew what pain he bore; We stood and watched him die. We leaned over and kissed Our loving dad goodbye. Always remembered by daughters, Velma and Gladys.

Smart—In remembrance of a loving father, Elsworth Smart, who passed away October 31, 1945. His weary hours and days of pain, His troubled nights are past And in our aching hearts we know He has found sweet rest at last. Sadly missed by son, George, and daughter-in-law, Joyce.

Thompson—In loving memory of a dear father, John D. Thompson, who passed away October 24, 1940. Six years have passed since that sad day When one we loved was called away. God took him home; it was His will. Within our hearts he liveth still. Ever remembered by family.

Widdifield—In memory of my cousin, Velma Widdifield, who died November 5, 1939. Ever remembered by Wilma Powell.
